By Ketron

A RESOLUTION to commend Hannah Wolters upon being named a Distinguished Finalist in the 2008 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly pause in their deliberations to salute those young citizens who, through their remarkable efforts, have distinguished themselves as emerging community leaders of whom we can all be proud; and

WHEREAS, Hannah Wolters is one such estimable person who evinces the greatest integrity and probity in all her chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, Hannah, an esteemed resident of Culleoka and a sophomore at Silver Sun Christian Academy, has achieved national acclaim for her exemplary record of volunteer service, gaining recognition as a 2008 Prudential Spirit of Community Award Distinguished Finalist; and

WHEREAS, this prestigious award, presented by Prudential Financial in partnership with the National Association of Secondary School Principals (NASSP), honors young volunteers across America who have demonstrated an extraordinary commitment to serving their respective communities and encourages all young Americans to contribute to their communities; and

WHEREAS, the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards is part of a broad youth-service initiative by Prudential that includes a youth leadership training program administered by the Points of Light and Hands On Network, a free booklet of volunteer ideas for young people offered through the Federal Citizen Information Center, and a Web site that offers countless support to young volunteers; and

WHEREAS, this program is the largest youth recognition program based solely on volunteer service, and all public and private middle and high schools in the country, Girl Scout councils, county 4-H organizations, American Red Cross chapters, YMCAs, and volunteer centers are eligible to nominate a student or member for a local award; distinguished finalists and state honorees are chosen from the local honorees based on personal initiative, creativity, effort, impact, and personal growth; and

WHEREAS, Hannah Wolters was chosen as a Distinguished Finalist in the program in recognition of her laudable efforts to raise and train a guide dog for a handicapped person; and

WHEREAS, Miss Wolters, a member of the Maury County 4-H program in Columbia, spent fourteen months caring for a black Labrador puppy, teaching her manners and basic commands and developing her social skills, before returning the puppy to an organization which serves the disabled; and

WHEREAS, Hannah Wolters has distinguished herself as a public-spirited citizen of the highest order and as an exceptional asset to her community; and

WHEREAS, as a Distinguished Finalist, Hannah will receive an engraved bronze medallion at a locally held ceremony; and

WHEREAS, Miss Wolters's remarkable success as a public servant and civic leader is directly attributable to her reliance on the time-honored values of hard work and common sense and her uncommon ability to work well with people from all walks of life; and

WHEREAS, Hannah is an extremely giving person who often reaches out with compassion to people whom life has treated unkindly, and she epitomizes the ideal of the dedicated public servant and reliable friend and neighbor; and

WHEREAS, the success of this State, the strength of our communities, and the overall vitality of American society depend, in great measure, upon the dedication of young people like Miss Wolters, who use their considerable talents and resources to serve others, and she should be specially recognized; now, therefore,
